NEW KENDALL™ COLLECTION OF BATH ACCESSORIES
FROM CREATIVE SPECIALTIES INTERNATIONAL
PROVES IT’S HIP TO BE SQUARE

North Olmsted, Ohio ... Just because it’s called a towel “ring” doesn’t mean it needs to be in a circular shape. In fact, why not try a square design? The innovative designers at Creative Specialties International have done just that – created an entire suite of bath accessories featuring a unique, square design. The Kendall collection, one of the first accessory collections with a square style, offers an innovative, art deco design with a modern flair.

Adding the perfect finishing touch to a traditional bath, the Kendall suite includes a timeless collection of products with a touch of glamour. Each product is mounted on a tiered, square face plate with rounded corners to give it a classic appeal. And consumers will appreciate the on-trend finish in which each of the Kendall accessories is offered – beautiful, polished nickel.

Kendall accessories are available in a complete suite of products, including a robe hook, a pivoting paper holder, a towel ring, and 18” and 24” towel bars. The unique pivoting paper holder reduces the hassle factor of paper changing by replacing the spring-mounted roller with an arm that pivots upward for quick, painless changes. Each product is guaranteed with a limited, one year warranty and is easy to install – through improved dry wall screws and an installation template.
